

Internship Exchange

Benefits to Students

1. Interns not only gain practical work experience in the field that they intend to pursue but also build experience in international platforms.
2. Internships taken internationally offers the privilege to observe differences in business practices, and see how projects are handled in different cultures, which might be conducted differently in the intern's home country
3. Experience of living and working abroad can really boost students' CV/résumé. It shows that they are not afraid of a challenge and that they are willing to accommodate change. This can result in more job offers as compared to individuals who lack such work experience.
4. It increases their global business awareness.
5. It is an excellent opportunity to see parts of the world that would not be possible had they taken that Internship in their home country.
6. Make contacts and create solid relationships with professionals abroad.

Eligibility

The academic requirements for Internship Exchange are the same for Field Internship. However, priority is given to students with a CGPA of 2.5 and above and with good command of English and business communication skills. In addition, applicants should have a positive attitude and a strong personality.

Fees

UD students going to partner universities for Internship will pay US$ 600 to the partner university. Similarly, the students from partner universities will pay UD US$ 600 per course/Internship to UD when they visit UD under this program. Such program offers other direct benefits to student learning such as student engagement with partner university students, increased interaction among the two sets of students, appreciation of international issues on culture, business practices, etc. However, UD students should be financially capable of bearing the internship expenses for eight weeks i.e. (accommodation, transport and others) during their stay abroad.

Registration

Students who are willing to do their Internship at Hamburg or Grenoble must register at ICDC using the International Internship Application Form (IPF 1-1) during the Internship registration period as announced by the Center. Students applying for Internship Exchange (International) should provide the same documents as listed under Field Internship.

Placement

International Internship placement is secured by partner universities in coordination with the ICDC.

Code of Conduct

Internship Exchange students are expected to maintain the highest standards of professional conduct and integrity, in addition to complying with all university with all university policies and procedures. Download code of conduct